

Working Together

Artists can combine, or put together, their ideas and skills. They work together to make beautiful art!

Artists can work together to make pictures. Some pictures, such as this mural, are very big. Many artists worked together to paint it!

It takes days for these artists to make paintings out of sand. Working together helps them create art more quickly.

These artists are painting a colorful picture together.

